

THE GREAT TECH MIGRATION

Since January 2010, 58 of the 89 San Francisco Bay Area headquartered (100,000 SF+) tech and life science companies have taken 30.4 MSF of office space across the U.S. representing:

TECH SHARE OF TOTAL EMPLOYMENT

*Percentage derived from primary NAICS code of companies that have expanded from Bay Area.

But, the Bay Area is still absorbing tech space...
